Security

When you give us information, we take steps to make sure that your personal information is kept secure and safe. All information is kept in line with our Privacy Policy which is available on our website or from reception.

Only CDHA staff and partners and contractors who have signed data sharing agreements and who need to see your personal information will have access to it.

We will not usually retain your payment details unless you make payments to us using Direct Debit.

Our computer systems are located in our main office, however our staff may occasionally use laptops, tablet, or other devices offsite, i.e. for homeworking. In instances where devices are used remotely this will be secure and under strict control at all times.

Additionally, we have the following controls in place to ensure the security of your personal information:

- All paper-based records are securely locked in storage cupboards when not actively being used.
- Our offices are protected by an alarm system, a security company and are monitored by CCTV.
- All CDHA computer servers are within a secure network.
- All electronic communication takes place within this secure environment.

The unauthorised use of IT systems is prevented by:

- User ID
- Password assignment
- Lock screen with password activation
- Each authorised user has a private password known only to themselves.
- Regular prompts for password amendments

How long we will keep your information

We review our data retention periods regularly and will only hold your personal data for as long as is necessary for the relevant activity, or as required by law (we may be legally required to hold some types of information), or as set out in any relevant contract we have with you.

We will generally keep your information for periods as recommended by law. Once the periods have expired, the information will be destroyed if it is no longer required for the reasons it was obtained. Our full retention schedule is available by contacting the office on 0141 633 2779, emailing us at info@cathcartha.co.uk or from our website: <https://www.cathcartha.co.uk/content/get-touch>.
